Honouring the UN International Year of Reconciliation 2009: 2010 Call for Continuing with Reconciliation towards universal Peace and to implement the UN Millennium Development Goals

This initiative of the S.E.R. Foundation is a call for the continuation of the UN International Reconciliation Year 2009.

We cordially invite governments, NGOs, media, institutions and individuals from all over the world to participate with activities on all levels of cultural, social and educational fields.

Your Reconciliation initiative

These reconciliation projects may concern different fields of endeavour. The concept and the conduct of the same, as well as the duration, are up to the initiator. Please be inspired by the registered and documented reconciliation projects 2009, available on the homepage of www.global-balance.org.

Reconciliation as a state of mind

Reconciliation is a first step towards peace, order and justice. It begins within oneself as a personal subjective experience. The awareness of the value of reconciliation enables us to act with foresight, to operate connectively and integratively, and to find a synthesis between supposed contradictions and conflicts.

The aim is to build a growing global network for a life in dignity and peace for all mankind.

The S.E.R. Foundation

The S.E.R. Foundation is an NGO with advisory status at the UN ECOSOC (Economic and Social Council), also associated with the UN DPI (Department for Public Information). One of its global commitments is to foster reconciliation and peace.

Participation and Networking

In order to unite all participants in the knowledge of each other as well as to document and to make it visible, the S.E.R. Foundation collects all projects planned in 2010, available on the homepage of its partner organisation www.global-balance.org.

We would be pleased to receive your online registration of your project/event under www.global-balance.org and would ask you, on completion of your project, for a short report including photo (not exceeding 1-2 pages) by 31 December 2010.
